

Continuation sheets

Only use these continuation sheets if you are told to in the lasting power of attorney (LPA) form. Many people make an LPA without needing to use a continuation sheet.

If you make two LPAs and you need to use continuation sheets for both of them, use separate sheets for each LPA.

Continuation sheet 1 – Additional people

- Use this sheet if you need space to write more names for sections 2, 4 or 6 of the LPA form.
- Sign and date the sheet on the same day as you sign the LPA form.

Continuation sheet 2 – Additional information

- Use this sheet if you need more space to write information for sections 3, 4 or 7 of the LPA form.
- If you have to write extra information for more than one of those sections, use a fresh copy of the sheet for each one.
- Sign and date the sheet on the same day as you sign the LPA form.

Continuation sheet 3 – If the donor cannot sign or make a mark

- Use this sheet if you can't sign or make a mark yourself.
- You will need someone else to sign on your behalf and two people must witness their signature.
- If you're making an LPA for health and care decisions, the person signing for you must also sign section 5 of the LPA on the same day as they sign this sheet.

Continuation sheet 4 – Trust corporation appointed as an attorney

- Use this sheet if you appointed a trust corporation as an attorney or replacement attorney.
- Someone from the trust corporation must sign this sheet instead of signing section 11 of the LPA form.
- They must sign this sheet after your 'certificate provider' has signed section 10 of the LPA form.

Only use this page if the donor has appointed a trust corporation as an attorney or replacement attorney

By execution of this deed the trust corporation understands and confirms all of the following:

- It has read this lasting power of attorney (LPA), including section 8 'Your legal rights and responsibilities'.
- It has a duty to act based on the principles of the Mental Capacity Act 2005 and to have regard to the Mental Capacity Act Code of Practice.
- It can make decisions and act only when this LPA has been registered.
- It must make decisions and act in the best interests of the person giving this LPA.
- It is not going through winding-up proceedings.
- It can spend money to make gifts but only to charities or on customary occasions such as birthdays, and for reasonable amounts, with regard to size of the donor's estate.
- It has a duty to keep accounts and financial records and produce them to the Office of the Public Guardian or to the Court of Protection on request.
- It can make decisions and act regarding the donor's property and financial affairs only at the time indicated in section 5 of this LPA.

Further statement by a trust corporation acting as a replacement attorney: It has the authority to act under this LPA only after an original attorney's appointment is terminated. It must notify the Public Guardian if that happens.
