You should complete this form if you are applying for a financial order or remedy in the Family Court or for an Order for financial provision for a child under the provisions of Schedule 1 to the Children Act 1989.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

It is important that this form is completed fully and accurately. Where any box is not applicable write "N/A", rather than leave it blank.

You have a duty to the Court to give full, frank and clear disclosure of all of the financial and other circumstances relevant to this application.

Failure to give a full and accurate picture of your financial position and other relevant matters can have serious consequences including:-

- The possibility of a Court setting aside any order that has been made;
- The risk of criminal or civil proceedings being brought against you;
- Being sent to prison for disobeying a court order.

Some parts of the form ask you to attach specific and specified documentation. Please ensure that you do this. You can attach other documents if it is necessary to explain or clarify any of the information that you give.

If there is not enough room in the form for a particular piece of information you may continue on a separate sheet of paper which should be attached to this form.

If you are in any doubt about how to complete any part of this form you should seek legal advice. Once you have completed the form you should send it to the Court and send a copy to the other party, with the attachments in each case.

This statement is sent to the Court by

4.2 Brief details of the standard of living enjoyed by you and your spouse/civil partner/other party during the marriage/civil partnership/relationship

4.3 Are there any particular contributions to the family property and assets or outgoings, or to family life, or the welfare of the family that have been made by you, your partner or anyone else that you think should be taken into account? If there are any such items, briefly describe the contrition and state the amount, when it was made and by whom.

INCLUDE

Contributions already made

Contributions that will be made in the foreseeable future

4.4 Bad behaviour or conduct by the other party will only be taken into account in very exceptional circumstances when deciding how assets should be shared after divorce/dissolution. If you feel it should be taken into account in your case, identify the nature of the behaviour or conduct below.

--

4.5 Give details of any other circumstances that you consider could significantly affect the extent of the financial provision to be made by or for you or any child of the family.

5 Order Sought

5.1 If you are able at this stage, specify what kind of orders you are asking the court to make.

Even if you cannot be specific at this stage, if you are able to do so, indicate:

- a) If the family home is still owned, whether you are asking for it to be transferred to yourself or your spouse/civil partner/other party or whether you are saying it should be sold.

- b) Whether you consider this is a case for continuing spousal maintenance/maintenance for your civil partner or whether you see the case as being appropriate for a ‘clean break’. (A ‘clean break’ means a settlement or order which provides amongst other things, that neither you nor your spouse/civil partner will have any further claim against the income or capital of the other party. A ‘clean break’ does not terminate the responsibility of a parent to a child. This aspect is not relevant where the application is for an order under the provisions of Schedule 1 of the Children Act 1989)

- c) Whether you are seeking a
- i. Pension sharing order
 - ii. Pension attachment order
 - iii. Pension compensation sharing order
 - iv. Pension compensation attachment order

This is only relevant in applications for financial orders following the breakdown of a marriage or civil partnership

- d) If you are seeking a transfer or settlement of any property or assets, identify the property or assets in question.

- 5.2 If you are seeking a variation of an ante-nuptial or post-nuptial settlement or a relevant settlement made during, or in anticipation of, a civil partnership, identify the settlement, by whom it was made, its trustees and beneficiaries and state why you allege it is a settlement which the court can vary

- 5.3 If you are seeking an avoidance of disposition order, or if you have already applied for such an order, identify the property to which the disposition relates and the person or body in whose favour the disposition is alleged to have been made.
