Recitals

Recital for without notice hearings

3. (In the case of an order made without notice)
 - a. This order was made at a hearing without notice to the respondent. The reason why the order was made without notice to the respondent was [set out].
 - b. The Judge read the following affidavits/witness statements [set out] and heard oral testimony from [name].

Recital for short informal notice hearings

4. (In the case of an order made following the giving of short informal notice)

This order was made at a hearing without full notice having been given to the respondent. The reason why the order was made without full notice having been given to the respondent was [set out].

Recital as to a MIAM

5. [It is recorded that the [applicant]/[respondent]/[parties] have attended a MIAM and have sent to the court a completed Form FM1 dated [insert] / [It is recorded that the [applicant has not]/[respondent has not]/[neither of the parties have] attended a MIAM; and it is further recorded that [it appears to the court that a MIAM would not be appropriate within these proceedings] / [it appears to the court that neither party has provided any reason that in the view of the court would render mediation unlikely to be effective]]

Agreements

6. (*Record any agreements reached between the parties – for example: The parties have agreed the value of the family home at [insert address including postcode] at [insert value] for FDR purposes*).

Undertakings to the court

7. (Record any undertakings given).

Undertaking for without notice hearings

8. By [insert time and date] the applicant shall [use [his]/[her] best endeavours personally to serve upon the respondent] / [serve upon the respondent, by [insert method of service – for example posting to the respondent’s usual address]], together with this order:
 - a. a copy of the application;

- b. copies of the witness statement(s) and exhibits containing the evidence relied upon by the applicant, and any other documents provided to the court on the making of the application; and
- c. a note [prepared by [his]/[her] solicitor] recording the substance of the dialogue with the court at the hearing and the reasons given by the court for making the order, which note shall include (but not be limited to) any allegation of fact made orally to the court where such allegation is not contained in the witness statement(s) or draft witness statement(s) read by the judge.

9. The [applicant]/[respondent] shall make the following payments pending [the financial dispute resolution appointment]/[the final determination of these proceedings]:- [insert – for example all interest and capital repayments due in respect of the mortgage secured against the family home; and all [reasonable] sums due in respect of service charge, council tax, utilities (including but not limited to gas, electricity, water and telephone accounts), and buildings and contents insurance premiums in respect of the family home].

Undertaking where a legal services order is made

10. The [applicant]/[respondent] shall repay to the [respondent]/[applicant] such part of the amounts paid under the legal services order below if, and to the extent that, the court is of the opinion, when considering costs at the conclusion of the proceedings, that (s)he ought to do so.

You may be held to be in contempt of court and imprisoned or fined, or your assets may be seized, if you break the promises that you have given to the court. If you fail to pay any sum of money which you have promised the court that you will pay, a person entitled to enforce the undertaking may apply to the court for an order. You may be sent to prison if it is proved that you-

(a) have, or have had since the date of your undertaking, the means to pay the sum; and

(b) have refused or neglected, or are refusing or neglecting, to pay that sum.

I understand the undertakings that I have given, and that if I break any of my promises to the court I may be sent to prison for contempt of court.
